

LSE

Connect

For alumni of the London School of Economics and Political Science
Vol 23, number 1, summer 2011

Judith Rees

Welcomed from the new director

Nikolas Rose

Understanding the human mind

CARVING UP
SPACE

Jill Stuart on the governance of the stars

Class notes

This section allows alumni to share their latest news and achievements. If you would like to be included in a future issue, email alumni@lse.ac.uk.

Entries are listed by year of first LSE degree received, with any additional degrees included in the entry. House style is to list simply BSc/MSc without the additional Econ.

2000 central development charity Plan International (PI). She was appointed a governor of the School in 2007 and recently returned to take part in the World Stage Student and Alumni Lecture Series.

2004

Agnes Christou (BSc Sociology) is the Greek Capital programme director

Research and Sustainable Future and in Cyprus Series which started in May of the United Nations Commission.

William Linn, at William Linn is recognised a Group for his role that investing in initiative, a positive measure investment implementation.

new skills financial security premium investment services investment (London.com)

Development recently been environmental pollution Chamber of Attorneys, the new firm for Paris.

PI International economic security works for the United Nations, joined as a senior planning adviser with the UN Mission in Sudan. In July 2010 he was awarded a UNCT Award for contributions to the development and implementation of the UN Integrated Mission Planning Process.

2005

Karim Kahatt (MSc Development Management) has recently been recognised as a top environmental lawyer by British publication Chambers UK. His firm, Kahatt Abogados, also features as a top choice firm for environmental matters in Peru.

1950

David Greenwood (BSc Social and Science) in 1951, MA in Political Science and engaged in research on the future of the world.

1962

been awarded the title of Honorary Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and the title of Honorary Fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine.

1974

Mark Green (International Development Studies) was recently appointed a special representative for Afghanistan.

2011. He served nearly 30 years as a Foreign Service officer, rising from the Department of State and the role of US under secretary of state for political affairs in 2005.

1983

Matthew Brown (BSc Politics of the World Economy) recently accepted a position as the director of the 2003

Matthew Brown (BSc Politics of the World Economy) recently accepted a position as the director of the

Matthew Brown (BSc Politics of the World Economy) recently accepted a position as the director of the

Daniel Israel (BSc Computer Studies) was recently appointed to the State Board of Education for the 4th Congressional District in the State of Georgia, USA. Daniel heads Consumer Mobile Product Management and Strategy at Home Depot.

Matthew Brown (BSc Politics of the World Economy) recently accepted a position as the director of the 2003

Rosam Harvey (BSc Social

Anthropology) currently works as policy and advocacy officer at the

Rosam Harvey (BSc Social

Anthropology) currently works as policy and advocacy officer at the World Economic Forum. She has led the role of policy and strategy lead within its public service division.